Supporting you

- We can talk together about what help you might need when starting school.
- I can help you navigate your way through the systems, find a way to achieve your goals and aspirations.
- I will be here to guide and support you throughout your journey

Here are some examples of how I can support you:

Advice on after-school clubs or activities

I can help you find your way round.
E.g. provide you with a visual map

Help with getting to know who's who at school

Find out information for you and signpost you to other services if needed

Talk about your future and help with your goals

Help with your concerns or worries

Coping with change

Asking for help

Here are some people we could speak to:

- Teacher
- Parent
- Other adult or mentor

You can share how you are feeling using social stories, writing or drawing

Have a special place to go

In your special place you could do some:

- Drawing
- Writing down how you feel
- Painting
- Other art - make a mosaic or collage

This could be a different room, or somewhere quiet. Imagine being in a safe place

Deep breathing

Breathing exercise:

- Hold your hand out.
- Breathe in and out as you move up and down the edge of your fingers.

Breathe from your diaphragm. You should be able to feel your stomach go in and out. Take your time exhaling

Coping with change

Do sport or exercise

Exercises:

- Run on the spot
- Shake or dance it out
- Do some relaxation exercises or stretching.

See if your key contact has some examples of yoga poses

Distract yourself with something you like

Music & Reading:

- Listen to a favourite song or something calming music. You could sing along.
- Play an instrument

Read something uplifting or that makes you laugh out loud

Other activities

- Brain Games
- Puzzles
- Tracing
- Making things
- Baking

Think about your hopes and dreams, and imagine them coming true

Supporting you
