Supporting Young People

16-25

WHO ARE YOU?

We are Walsall SENDIAS.

We are a free and impartial support service available to everyone in Walsall.

WHAT DO YOU DO?

We offer free and impartial advice, information and support on all things SEND related.

This means that we help with:

- Support at school
- Education, Health, and Care plans (EHCP)
- Exclusions
- What to do next
- What to do when things go wrong
- Appealing local authority decisions
- Finding good schools or colleges to go to
- Finding and accessing additional support
- The law on SEND

WHY WOULD I NEED YOU?

If you need any help at school, at home, or in any aspect of life you can contact us.

If we can't help you, we can tell you who can!

WHO WOULD HELP ME?

Our team is made up of four people, they are:

Catherine, Claire, Tanya, and Matti.

One of us will be able to help you!

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

Nothing, our service is completely free.

DOES ANYONE HAVE TO KNOW I AM GETTING HELP?

No. Our work with you is completely confidential.

However, if we think you are in danger we might have to tell someone, but we will discuss that with you first.
