

Hello.

A bit about us.

We are a small group of people called the Domestic Abuse Healing and Empowerment team.

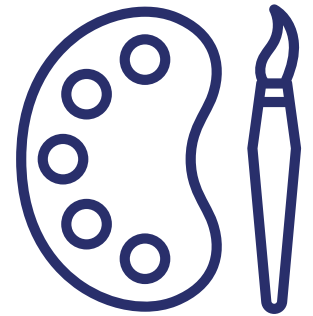

We meet with all kinds of children (and adults too) that have seen or heard some unkind things.

Some children who come to us may feel anger or sadness. They sometimes feel unsafe or scared. There are also lots of other feelings too, none of which are wrong.

We do all sorts of things with the children who come and see us. Sometimes we play with toys, sometimes we paint or draw. We might even make some music.

We see children a few times. Sometimes their adult stays with them but children always come with their adult and go home with them too.

We look forward to meeting you.
